Naples, May 20, N. S.

ON the 11th Instant, whilst the King was shooting of Quails in the Woods of the Mortelle, he accidentally shot one of his Servants in the Head, as he came out of a Bush, of which Wound he expired in two Hours; at which his Majesty was greatly concerned. M. Lopez Rosa, Superintendent of the Mint at Rome, and Farmer of the Tobacco in this Kingdom, having received several Draughts from Abroad, and not being in a Condition to discharge them, under a Pretence of being broke, took his Flight from this City. The same Day, the 11th, anchored in this Port from Sicily, four Transport Vessels with the disbanded Troops out of the Swiss Battalion Giuri, and the Regiment of Sicily in Garrison there. On the 18th sailed from Siracusa in a Convoy of Transports, the Regiment Royal Farnese, to garrison that Place. The City of Benevento is reduced to the greatest Necessity for Want of Necessaries, the King's Troops continuing to keep it strictly blocked up, and hindering it from being supplied with Provisions, on Account of the Disagreements between the King and the Pope, on declining to deliver up our Deserters. The Inhabitants of this City are put to the greatest Consternation, because, contrary to the usual Observation, the Blood of St. Gennaro, the Protector of this City, (which is preserved in a little Bottle) has not shewed the usual Miracle of Liquefaction, which has occasioned an extraordinary Apprehension and Confusion in the Country, insomuch that on the 15th a Procession of Penitence was perform'd with the greatest Exemplarity and Devotion, and which was followed by publick Prayers for nine Days successively, the King having on this Occasion forbid all Manner of Diversions.

Rome, May 24, N. S. The Emperor, on the Remonstrances made by the Pope of the vast Prejudices which the Treaty of Amity, lately stipulated by him as Great-Duke of Tuscany, with the Regencies of Barbary, occasions to the Pope's Trading Subjects, and in general to those of the Neighbouring Princes, has caused a Copy of these Treaties to be transmitted to the Court of Rome, demonstrating, that they are exactly conformable to those which the King of the Two Sicilies had stipulated with them, in which is expressly mentioned, that these Pirates shall not take Shelter in the Ports of Tuscany, but only in Case of Distress of Weather. The Republick of Venice has subjected to 20 Days Quarantine all Vessels that shall arrive in the Venetian Dominions from any Ports in the Mediterranean. On the 15th the Pope delivered, with the usual Formalitites, at the Vatican, to M. Boschi, the Bull for the Holy Year, which he, attended by the Prelates of the Bed-Chamber, published immediately in the usual Manner.

Florence, May 30, N. S. Last Week M. de Richecourt dispatched an Estafette to Vienna, in Consequence of the Dispatches he had received from Marshal Stampa at Pisa, relating to the Dependency of Carpegna and Scavolino, Imperial Fiefs, devolved, as they pretend, to the Emperor. On the 22d a Courier, with Dispatches from the Archbishop at Pisa, passed by this City for Lombardy, with circular Orders to the Chiefs of the Clergy, to cause a young Lady, a Nun, to be arrested, who, on the 20th at Night, in Company with a Doctor of the Law, made her Escape out of a Nunnery at Pisa. On the 24th Count Salin, General of the Militia, and Commander in Chief of the Troops in Tuscany, agreeable to the Permission he has obtained from the Emperor, departed from this City for Vienna and Transilvania. During his Absence, M. Henard, the Deputy Military Governor at Leghorne, who is purposely come to Florence, acts as Commander in Chief of the Troops; and Marquis del Monte, Colonel of the Militia Regiment Cuiraſſiers, has the Direction of the Affairs of the Militia.

Paris,

(Price Four-pence.)

Paris, June 11, N. S. The Marquis d'Hautefort, who was formerly in the Service, but quitted a few Years ago, is appointed Ambaſſador to the Court of Vienna. Marſhal Saxe is ſet out for Dreſden; before he ſet out, his Majeſty granted him a Penſion of 20,000 Crowns per Annum, to make him Amends for the Loſs of his Government of the Low Countries.

Hague, June 17, N. S. Ali-Effendi, the Tripolitan Ambaſſador, having been lately inſulted in his Houſe by ſome Jews who had quarrelled with his Attendants, he preſented a Memorial to the States General, to deſire Satisfaction for the Violence then committed againſt him: But laſt Friday (being the Day appointed for the publick Rejoicings on Account of the Peace) he wrote to the Greffier, That, as it was a Maxim in his Country, upon ſuch ſolemn Occaſions, to forgive all Treſpaſſes, he deſired this Affair might be entirely buried in Oblivion. The States of Zealand have lately reſolved to raiſe a Million of Florins, by Way of a Lottery; to conſiſt of Ten Thouſand Tickets, divided into fifty Claſſes, which are to be paid off in as many Years, in the following Manner; the Bearer of a Ticket that ſhall have drawn a Prize of 40 Florins in the thirtieth Claſs, is to receive 40 Florins per Annum for thirty Years, and at the End of that Term, he is to be re-imburſed the 100 Florins which are to be paid down for the Subſcription.
